First Dose of Pape's Cold Compound Ends All Grippe Misery.

You can surely end grippe and break up the most severe cold either in head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, by taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, nose throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound as directed, without interference with your usual duties and with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—accept no substitute—certainly no quinine—belongs in every home. Tastes nice.

TWO CAUSES ALLEGED FOR THIS DIVORCE.

Intolerable Cruelty and Habitual Intemperance in Bouchard Suit.

Intolerable cruelty since July 30, 1894, and habitual intemperance for the past five years are the grounds on which Mrs. Mary Bouchard of New London brings suit for divorce from John Bouchard of Griswold, according to papers filed with the clerk of the superior court. The couple were married on July 30, 1894, and there are five children, of which the mother asks the custody.

A HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD IN FEW HOURS.

If Cross, Irritable, Feverish, Tongue Coated and Sick, Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

Your child isn't naturally cross, irritable and peevish, Mother! Examine the tongue; if coated, it means the little ones' stomach is disordered, liver inactive and its thirty feet of bowels clogged with foul, decaying waste.

Every mother realizes after giving delicious "Syrup of Figs" that this is the ideal laxative and physic for children. Nothing else regulates the little one's tender stomach, liver and bowels so effectively, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

For constipated bowels, sluggish liver, biliousness, or sour, disordered stomach, feverishness, diarrhoea, sore throat, bad breath or to break a cold, give one-half to a teaspoonful of "Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, sour bile, undigested food and constipated matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna, and aromatics it cannot be harmful. Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by J. C. Ayling, New York City. This is the delicious, reliable, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOM

Knights of Columbus Educational Campaign—Norwich Lodge, No. 430, B. P. O. E., Visited By District Deputy Cassidy—Supreme Officers Visit Norwich Council, F. B. L.—Hope Rebekah Lodge Elects Delegates—United Workmen Officers Installed.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

The educational lecture campaign recently launched by the Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus under the inspiration and direction of John H. Reddin, Supreme Master of that Degree, is a systematic attempt on the part of the Supreme Master and the fifty-six Masters of the Fourth Degree in the United States and Canada to develop the Catholic lecture field. The Order has published a little booklet containing the names of fifty Catholic Lecturers who are available.

Connecticut is credited with Rev. W. A. Keefe as lecturer. Father Keefe is located in Plainfield and is at one time curate in St. Mary's parish and is known as an able and forceful speaker.

Each Master will give at least one lecture this winter under the auspices of some assembly in his district. This is the age of the propagandist. Intellectual, religious, moral, political and economic are born every day and all have their followers, among supposedly intellectual people. What is the force of the influence to hold them to the old safe moorings? This movement is destined to supply it.

Intellectual eagerness is the predominant characteristic of this generation. Millions of deeply earnest men are groping in the dark, eagerly seeking with all their power to reach the light. The rise of Socialism all over the world illustrates this.

It is only a little over two months since Mr. Reddin sent a letter to all of the Masters in the United States and Canada and to a few other prominent Catholic gentlemen setting forth this plan.

The order in this city has responded nobly to this appeal. It was under the auspices of White Cross Council No. 13, Knights of Columbus that David Goldstein was brought to the town hall last Monday evening and paper as soon as possible Saturdays, and fly first thing to the Social Corner.

I enjoy the stories, too, and thank the writers for always remembering me in them.

Why haven't some of the Sisters written more about their plants. Among mine I have a freak of a wild rose. At the leaves turn to a lovely bright red, then sort of air off. Can anyone tell me the reason of this? Also, as there any way of treating the lobster plants. Mine has become and looks pretty good, but not such a good green as I've seen. Could I keep it too wet? It is in a sunny window.

have plants and have quite a few, but they don't seem to bloom nicely. I feel lonesome without some of the old writers among us.

Where are you all?

With best wishes to you all.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS FROM FRANK.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: In friendship as in other matters it is the little things that count—not promise of eternal fidelity but thoughtfulfulness about trifles assures us our friend really cares for us.

Here is a useful hint or two. If the rollers of your wringer wear out while the other parts are yet good, take white felt cut so the edges just meet covering the roll completely and close with needle and strong thread, and the wringer is serviceable again.

A window refrigerator saves ice and is convenient. Have a dry goods box about 18 inches deep and three feet high cut in the outside of the pane window coming not quite up to the second sash, nicely papered and fitted with shelves and one or two screened holes for circulation of air. Affix a curtain to the outside of the lower sash and when the sash is raised the curtain goes with it. This is very convenient for keeping food in cold water.

Balsam. Pir: My birthday will not come for a good while, yet. Thank you and all from whom I received nice cards; and thanks to the story writers who included me in their social pictures and pleasures.

Moosup.

A SEARCHING LETTER.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: I hope the Editor will change his mind and print Billy's story for if it is like he it is in very jolly.

C. of C.: I passed a glimpse at your pretty petunia not long ago.

Theodora: I hear you are well this winter. Wonder what you are making from the last Priscilla.

Muggins: I think you must have had a dandy time, a few summers past.

Antony: How are you now, I hope your stomach is much better than when I saw you last.

Hepatica: You must be very cozy in your home this winter.

Billy: How your letters please me. I can see you while writing.

Pink Rose: I can see Spring is your time.

Samantha: How are your daughters?

Allice: Are you frozen up? I have not seen you driving by of late.

E. Z.: Where art thou? Don't try to hide, for some know you as well as I.

Ready: I've not passed your home for a long time. Hope you are well.

Strawberry Acres: I don't think you get many on your own farm. Ha Ha.

Y. Z.: Don't get froze up. Don't think you have used the yellow slip paper up yet.

J. E. T.: Don't let the little place like Y—down you.

RECIPES THAT REACH THE HEART OF MAN.

Dear Editor and Sisters of the Social Corner: This week finds me about used up with a cold, so my letter will be short.

I will send a few recipes. If you like graham you will like these.

They say the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. I think if you try these they will reach it:

Graham Pudding—Two cups sifted graham flour, one cup milk, one cup raisins, one-half cup molasses, one-half teaspoon soda, pinch salt; steam two hours and a half.

Graham Bread—One-half cup molasses, one cup sour milk, one teaspoon soda, little salt, two cups (not sifted) graham flour; let rise one hour and bake.

Graham Gems—One egg, one pint sweet milk, one cup graham flour, one-half cup wheat flour; bake in gem pans. They are nice for breakfast.
